Visioning

How do you see your spiritual maturity, spiritual gifts, and natural talents being utilized to uphold the purpose and long range vision of NTUMC?

At the end of your three years, what missions and ministries do you think will have been most impacted by your service and leadership, and how?

Please share anything else that you think is relevant to your desire to serve in leadership.

Preparing for your interview

You will be contacted for a face-to-face interview with the Nominations Committee. Here are some questions which may arise in the course of our time together. These are shared so that you can prayerfully prepare your thoughts and responses.

Share with us the most satisfying experience on a volunteer basis in your life.

You will have the opportunity to serve along side people in your church family in a particular ministry. Some will be highly skilled, others will be inexperienced but willing. Some will be spiritually mature and some will be spiritually young. Tell us about a time you worked on a task with others, preferably in the church. What was your primary role? Were you responsible for creating the team and involving people? How did you prioritize tasks and keep momentum going? Did you see yourself more focused on the task at hand and the result or on the relationships in your team?

Vision is important. At NTUMC, the Pastor is the Visionary, the LB is the Guardian and Champion, and our staff (MLT) Empowers and Equips the congregation. Vision—short term and long term—will be a focus in 2018. Talk about how you approach vision. What thoughts, feelings and issues stir within you?

Discussions and decisions which involve money and finances inevitably arise. Are you comfortable talking about finances? How do you make purchasing decisions? Share your thoughts about finances and the role of money in your life, and in the church.

One very important task of LB is the exercise of their authority in Staff-Parish Relations with regard to effectiveness, compensation and employment issues. Supporting, monitoring and evaluating the work of our appointed leadership (our Pastor and Congregational Life & Discipleship Pastor), our employed and volunteer leadership, and making an annual recommendation to our Bishop and District Superintendent on pastoral leadership are spiritually significant duties entrusted to LB. Share your thoughts about being involved in these aspects of ministry.

If I am elected to serve on the Leadership Board/Board of Trustees, I will work together with the other members of the LB/BT and Ministry Leadership Team to address decisions and issues that arise for the glory of God and the direction of NTUMC. I understand that election to the LB/BT is a commitment that requires my attendance at monthly meetings and other relevant meetings. I will strive, with God's help, to attend 100% of the LB/BT meetings during my tenure.

"Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ." (Ephesians 5:21)

Paul teaches us that there is to be mutual submission between Christians one to another, bearing one another's burdens; not advancing ourselves one above the other; not domineering one over the other or giving laws to one another. It is in the spirit of this verse that the various teams function, relating to each other with mutual submission and respect.
